

NAMME NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

ABOUT NAMME:

The National Association of Medical Minority Educators, Inc. (NAMME) was established in 1975 by a group of educators concerned about the shortage of minority health providers and the need to establish an organization to address important issues impacting underrepresented minority students, faculty and administrators in health professions schools. All scholarships are made possible through the generosity of the NAMME National Board in an effort to expand the number of qualified, trained minority health care professionals in the continental United States.

Eligibility 2017:

To be considered for the NAMME National Scholarship, an applicant must:

- 1. Be nominated by a regular NAMME member in good fiscal standing.
- 2. Be an underrepresented ethnic minority (American Indian/Alaskan Native, Asian, Black/African American, Hispanic/Latino, Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander*). *Designations consistent with NAMME, Inc. Mission Statement
- 3. Be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident.
- 4. Be currently enrolled in an accredited health professional school or program where they are in good academic standing and have completed at least the first professional year of training. Undergraduate or Graduate Allied Health Profession students who have completed at least 1 semester or 2 quarters in their undergraduate or graduate allied health program are eligible to apply.
- 5. Professional students must have a minimum grade point average of 3.0, if the curriculum is graded. If the curriculum is Pass/Fail, the student must be passing all course work. Undergraduate or graduate allied health students must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0.

Criteria for Selection:

The NAMME National Scholarship Committee will make up to eight (8) awards on the basis of:

- 1. Documented financial need
- 2. Academic achievement
- 3. Community service
- 4. Personal statement/essay
- 5. Letters of recommendation
- 6. Recommendation forms

Number and Amount of Scholarship:

Up to eight (8) scholarships up to $1000.00 each.

Application Deadline:

Applications must be received by the National Scholarship Chair by June 9th, 2017. Application materials must be sent under one cover (no partially completed applications or copies please). Application packets not containing all required materials will be disqualified.

Selection of Candidates:

The complete application and supporting documentation should be forwarded to the National Scholarship Chair for review by the National Scholarship Committee. The Committee will select up to eight (8) recipients and present their recommended recipients to the National Board of NAMME for approval. Recipients will receive a Notice of Award from the National Scholarship Chair in August 2017.

NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

A completed application must be submitted to the NAMME National Scholarship Chair by the student being nominated. The NAMME National Scholarship Chair will forward the completed application to the National Scholarship Committee for review and scoring.

A completed application includes the following six items:

- 1. NAMME National Scholarship Application
- 2. Official health profession school transcript(s). For Undergraduate or Graduate Allied Health Program students, submission of official transcripts from all colleges/universities you have attended.
- 3. Typed personal statement/essay (no more than two pages), that address the following:
 - Why you feel you should be selected for this scholarship
 - Your background
 - Your academic achievements and any research you have conducted
 - Your community service initiatives
 - Your career goals
 - Any obstacles you have overcome

Be sure to include your name at the top and/or bottom of the statement.

- 4. Financial Aid Statement Form and a copy of your current Financial Aid Award Letter.
- 5. Two (2) letters of recommendation with corresponding Recommendation Forms
 - one must be from the NAMME nominator
 - one from your dean, program director, or faculty/advisor

Please note:

- 1. We highly recommend you keep a copy of your application materials for your records.
- 2. APPLICATION MATERIALS MUST BE SENT UNDER ONE COVER. APPLICATION PACKETS NOT CONTAINING ALL REQUIRED MATERIALS WILL BE DISQUALIFIED. No partially completed applications or copies accepted.
- 3. Completed application and supporting materials must be received by Friday, June 9th, 2017.
